Dear Mr.(Ms) Monroe Zafir,

It is glad to contact you. This is Brian Kim, working for Global business matching team at trade Korea service Center in KITA (Korea International Trade Association).

I was informed about your needs from Ms. Tina Kong of KITA's NY branch.

*** Your inquiry ***

Linear Low Density Polyethylene (LLDPE) Tubing

We are looking for 84" inches lay-flat tubing with 80 microns thickness, 70% LLDPE c-4 and 30% LLDPE c-6 using virgin FDA approved resin.

We prefer supplier should be ISO 9000 certified and must be from South Korea.

As I studied about your company. I assume that you are finding LLDPE film for food packaging.
Am I right?

Regarding the specification, I have some questions for you, please kindly give me your answer.
In addition to, I hope that I will be able to get product sample of LLDPE film sheet.

These are my questions.

****Questions****

1. Usage : (Food package?)
2. Core type : (paper or plastic)
3. Length(winding length) :
  - You mentioned about the weight of 1 roll is 225king
  - So, I think, length would be 1,500m
  - Formula :  $2080\text{mm (width of the sheet)} \times 80\text{mic (thickness)} \times 0.9 \text{ (Density of LLDPE)} \times \text{???? (length)} / 1,000,000 = 225\text{kg}$
  - As the result of formula, I guessed that the length of 1 roll is 1,500m.
4. Layer composition : (Multilayer or One layer)
  - It would be reveal if I test the sample in lab.
5. FDA certification
  - FDA certification is essential?
  - How is any other certification which is according to FDA standards?

As I get your reply, I will search suitable supplier immediately.

As I am working for No1. Korea's largest and most influential business non-profit association "KITA"

It is my honor to know you and support you without any commission. I am only working for global buyers and Korean sellers.

I sincerely hope that you will have a fruitful business with a Korean supplier. (Manufacturer).

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

Hope to hear soon.

Best Regards,

Brian Kim

Hi Susana,

I've spoken with our president and it seems that the event program doesn't have much correlation with what our organization does in that we do not participate much in the investment sector. I believe KOTRA(Korea Trade-Investment Promotion Agency) might be the more suitable organization to invite to your event.

You can find their information at <http://english.kotra.or.kr/>. They can be reached at 212-826-0900.
Thank you for reaching out.

Dear Tina,

Dear Mr Bangser,

Thank you for receiving us yesterday. It was a pleasure to know you in person and discuss our project.

As promised, I am sending you this email with additional information about our event Monterrey Investment Outreach.

Please find attached:

Executive summary of our event, taking place on March 18th and 19th in The New York Plaza Hotel, including information about guests, speakers, media partnership and audience.

Official invitation to the event

We would like to request a personal meeting with the Trade Commissioners of the following countries: Canada, China, South Korea, Spain, Brazil, Hong Kong, and Singapore, in order to present our project, invite them personally to attend as our guests, present our program and also define together with them which companies might have interest in attending the event, either as our guests (C-level executives) or purchasing tickets.

We strongly believe this is a unique networking opportunity, since it is the first time that we have a full Mexican delegation visiting New York, including personalities such as: Ildelfonso Guajardo (Federal Secretary of Economy), Rolando Zubirán (Secretary of Economic Development Nuevo León), Luis Téllez (President of Mexican Stock Exchange), Tomás Milmo (CEO Axtel), Mauricio Doehner (VP CEMEX), as well as representatives from other non-Mexican institutions such as Alexander Ibrahim (VP & Regional Head Global Corporate Group NYSE), Jens Peter Clausen (SVP LEGO Americas Manufacturing), Evan Greenberg (CEO ACE Limited), Ambassador Sandra Fuentes (TBC), among others. Through our collaboration with the trade delegations, we are also inviting multinational companies from different countries.

Please forward this information to the Trade Commissioners mentioned above. We are at your full disposition and hope we can meet the TC this or next week.

Thank you for your help and cooperation.
Wish you a wonderful day!

Hi David,

We've received your inquiry and are in the process of finding a suitable supplier. In order to exactly identify the reactor you're looking for, we're going to need a specific drawing and detailed specifications of the reactor. Could you kindly provide more information on what you're looking for?

Best,

Tina Kong

Hello Tina,

I am looking for two types of microfibers. One is a conventional microfiber with a gsm weight of 400, standard size of 16"x16" and good fiber split with a 80/20 ratio.

I am also looking for an edgeless microfiber with a gsm weight upwards of 500, standard size 16"x16" and excellent fiber split with an 80/20 ratio. I have samples of these two cloths and will send them to you for you to examine if you think you might be able to make products like this.

Please let me know when you get a chance.

Thank you,

Jonathan Broughton
